To save space in the newsletter, Hawaii-Focused Agency Resource Manuals and National and International Additional Neurotrauma Resources can now only be found on our website (<https://pdc.jabsom.hawaii.edu/resources.html>). You can also send an email request for the information to vhovath@hawaii.edu

The lists of Support Group meetings have also been updated on our website (<https://pdc.jabsom.hawaii.edu/resources.html>). They are, however, also still available in the newsletter.

1. Announcements

For our friends on Kauai: Mark Saturday, June 28, 2025 on your calendars! Hawaii Pacific Health is holding a Bike & Skateboard Safety Day at Wilcox Medical Center from 8:00 am – 11:00 am. It's free; sign your keiki up in advance at https://www.hawaiipacifichealth.org/health-wellness/events/keiki-bike-safety-day/?utm_source=newsletter&utm_medium=email. Onsite registration is also available the day of the event. Then, when you are finished at that event, take the short drive to Kukui Grove Center for the Kauai Kupuna and Disability Resource Fair, which takes place from 10:00 am – 2:00 pm on the same day. Sweet! Come visit me (Violet) at the Resource Table I will be staffing.

Work out at REHAB Hospital of the Pacific's next Stroke Support Group meeting! REHAB Recreational Therapist Heidi Caldwell will lead attendees in Cardio Drumming, a fun and simple full-body workout that combines rhythm and movement. It takes place Thursday, June 5, at 10:00 am. RSVP to community@rehabhospital.org if you're lucky enough to be able to attend.

A peer-led, supportive, casual space for job seekers, gig workers, freelancers, founders, and anyone navigating work and disabilities is starting up. They meet virtually on the second Monday of every month at 4:00 PT / 7:00 ET. That is currently 1:00 pm HST. A big Mahalo to organizer Keely Cat-Wells, for not forgetting Hawaii when setting up the schedule. Find out more in the new Employment Support Group section on page 29.

The Brain Injury Interdisciplinary Special Interest Group of the American Congress of Rehabilitation Medicine just shared a tip card: When Your Patient is Living with Brain Injury: A Tip Card for Medical Providers Treating Individuals Living with Chronic Brain Injury Sequelae. You can find it here:

My name is Nancy Damrah, I am a PhD candidate in the Translational Health Sciences Program at School of Medicine and Health Sciences/George Washington University. My research focuses on formulating recommended strategies to elicit and incorporate personal preferences of patients with acquired brain injury — traumatic brain injury (TBI) and Stroke — into occupational therapy treatments planning, aiming to enhance person-centered care and shared decision making in inpatient and outpatient rehabilitation settings.

In the first phase of the study, we are conducting interviews and group discussions with patients, care partners, occupational therapy practitioners, members of acquired brain injury advocacy groups, and experts in person-centered care.

Eligibility: if you are a

- Patient with history of stroke or traumatic brain injury and attended occupational therapy in inpatient and/or outpatient rehab settings
- Care partner of a patient with the previous description
- Occupational therapist who practice in inpatient or outpatient rehab settings and treat patients with stroke and/or traumatic brain injury
- An advocate for patients with acquired brain injury
- Expert in person-centered care in healthcare

You may be eligible to contribute to the first phase of my PhD study. Participation for patients, care partners, OT practitioners, and advocates involves a one-hour interview about patient preferences in person-centered care and how they are elicited and incorporated into OT treatment planning. Participation for experts in person centered care involves 1-4 group discussions to formulate the initial list of the recommended strategies of how to elicit and incorporate patient preferences into OT treatment planning.
